For what it might be worth I am writing in behalf of the long & somewhat confusing letter I rec'd today.

I went out on deferred pension to raise a new born 1964. Nello Remy, Anderson, Ind. I worked starting ^{into} my 13th yr. They gave me 10 yrs even. Was 10.1 I thought. I worked every overtime hr offered except 1 hr. Then I guess they counted off my 3 lay offs I did not want.

I had no medical benefits. My 30yr ^{ago} deceased husband worked for E.M.
2 times. We owned Sennis & hauled E.M. things for yrs. He also was a teamster who did not take me on his pension altho I protested. I took him on mine $42.50 which he laughed at - in short he would get 1/2. For the last 3 yrs. I got none. Now I hope I get more. Not less or none. I am age 77. Doris McGill ~~Deceased~~
Husband was Woodrow McGill deceased.
P.S. over please

I wonder if there is or will be any death benefits for my heir as I have youngest adopted son age 21 - who is almost blind in the right eye.

'Thanks' for keeping me posted or if you answer my concerns if I live to see it settled.

I do Not drive a foreign car - ~~We~~ do Not intend to in as much as if it is left completely made here. We taught them, then they taught us. Shame on U.S.A.
